DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

- The letter is responsive to the claims received on August 6, 2004.
- The following is a requirement for restriction and election of a group consisting of species. The applicant is required to elect from the group of distinct species.

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
  - Species I, drawn to learning apparatus that utilizes feature vectors and learning classifiers, as cited in pgs. 12-13 and defined by claims 1-4, 17-18, 25-26, 33.
  - Species II, drawn to a learning apparatus that utilizes feature vectors and increasing the accuracy of the classifiers through neural network, as cited in pgs. 15-16 and defined by claims 5-7, 19-20, 27-28, 34.
  - Species III, drawn to a learning apparatus that utilizes frequency maps and a trainable classifier, as cited in pgs. 19-20 and defined by claim 8-11, 21-22, 29-30, 35.
  - Species IV, drawn to a learning apparatus that utilizes frequency maps and a trainable classifier that repeats utilizing the feature vectors, as cited in pgs. 20-22 and defined by claim 12-16, 23, 31-32, 36.
2. The species are distinct because they are directed to related inventions. That is, each data learning apparatus are related by the disclosure as being adaptive systems. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, species I-IV as defined by claims 1-36 do not overlap in scope, they are mutually exclusive, and have materially different designs and modes of operation.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;

- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
